Minutes for February 6, 2019 Meeting

Co-Leaders Betty Fulford and Linda Kiley opened the meeting at 9:57 a.m. Margaret Hamilton led the members in prayer.

Betty reminded members to sign in at the first floor computer so our attendance could be tracked by the Senior Center.

Sandy Bruce made a motion to accept January's minutes and the minutes of the Board Meeting as presented. Seconded by Jean Miller. All approved.

Betty thanked Sandy Bruce and later Linda Darr for all their hard work as co-leaders last year and presented them with a thank-you card and gift card. They did a terrific job.

Treasury: Chris Carlin gave the treasury report.

Sunshine: Sandy Bruce asked that members let her know if cards need to be sent for sickness or thinking of you. She will handle birthdays.

Membership: Paula reported 18 members in attendance including new member Ginny Florczyk and returning member Sherry Sipe.

Quilts on Wheels: Fran Love reported that we still work on baffling.

Because of the tax work being done in our regular room, please check in at the first floor office to find out which room we will be in. It may be a little chaotic right now but we will deal with it until after tax season.

In April's QOW, Brenda Hager will present a class/workshop on paper-piecing. She sent around a sign-up sheet because she prepares fabric packets to be used in the class. Brenda emphasized that she expects to run a disciplined class so everyone gets a lot out of it. The blocks everyone makes can be put together to make a quilt top after the class if desired. Use your imagination and make beautiful quilts!!!

Audit: Paula volunteered to audit last year's checkbook.

Donation Quilt: Karen Keys is researching up-coming local quilt shows to see if they will allow us to sell raffle tickets.

NEW BUSINESS: Since we have many donation quilts finished, it was suggested that we ask the representative from Child Advocacy come to our September meeting and receive them.

Karen recommended the 25th anniversary Pigeon Forge show March 19 – 23. Accommodations are reasonable because it is before the busy season. Chris Blankenship sent around a sheet asking for suggestions for road trips. She will coordinate.

Betty will contact Darlene about the date/room available for our summer picnic and Christmas party.

Eighteen blocks were turned in for Quilts of Valor by Joan Harter, Brenda Hager, Chris Carlin, Betty Fulford, Sharrian Richard and Paula Spann. The blocks will be mailed to the QOV Foundation.

Respectfully submitted,

Paula Spann, Secretary

I hope everyone is enjoying working on their Baffle quilts. At our Guild Meeting in March, at whatever stage we find ourselves we will show all of them at "Show and Tell". In April, Brenda will teach paper piecing. Hope to see you guys the 20th.

Fran
