Minutes for July 1, 2016

Linda Gunter was gracious enough to host our summer picnic at her home. The guild supplied hamburgers, hotdogs, and chicken. Members brought a mix of great sides and desserts.

Rob Ford presented a trunk show and program on the Quilts of Valor program. He displayed patriotic panels and lots of red, white & blue patterned fabrics which make for easy piecing. Our guild was given a volunteer challenge to make some Quilts of Valor – maybe two or three ladies working together on a top.

Treasurer's Report: Chris Carlin reported a beginning balance, deposits, checks, with an ending balance .

Respectfully submitted,

Paula

From your co-leader we had a great time at the 4th of July party. I enjoyed having everyone in my home. Sorry some of you didn't make it. You missed a great time. Hope to see you at the Board meeting this month.

Just wanted to alert you all to my email address at the top of this newsletter. Please change to this in your contacts – I'm having a little trouble with the mi-connection one so have changed over to the hotmail account for the time being. And it's a whole lot easier to get on my iPad !!! Thanks

Judy Niemeyer Workshop

It was so wonderful to have Lucille Amos at our May meeting showing us all her wonderful Judy Niemeyer quilts that many of us decided we would like a workshop in the fall. Well - the date is set: September 28, 2016. That's the 4th Wednesday in September. The pattern is "Indian Summer" - it can be found on the internet and also check Batik, Etc. quilt shop up in Wytheville to see if they have it in stock. Hancocks-Paducah.com has the kit - it comes and goes very quickly so check it out ASAP - you can get on the waiting list if it's out of stock - that's what I did - and finally got mine. The cost there is $129.99. Check if free shipping is still offered. More info to follow.

Sandy

I'm hoping that Dawn doesn't mind me including her email I this newsletter. I cannot tell you all how much I truly appreciate her writing and sending pictures. The newsletter welcomes any member to do the same - the pictures are wonderful.

Sandy

Ladies,

I am so excited about what many of you have already taught me. These pics are of a small quilt I'm working on for QOW. The corners are SO much better, and thanks to Jean Miller, I now know how to do the swirl on the back to make the block lay flatter. I'm just SO excited!!!! This email probably does not express my appreciation and enthusiasm, but I'm very satisfied with my increase in knowledge of techniques! All of you are such wonderful and patient ladies to work with me! Many, many thanks!!!

Love you all!
Dawn

Magnolia Stitchers

We always have a great time at our meetings – sometimes learning new things but always with lively conversation. We only do hand work at this group which includes hand appliqué, hand piecing, hand embroidery, hand quilting and English Paper Piecing.
