September 2016
Vol. 16 No. 09

Please no perfumed products!!

Minutes for September 7, 2016

Vicki McBryde opened the meeting and Linda Gunter led members in a prayer.

Vicki reminded members to keep working on their UFO's and Quilts of Valor. Linda G. has patriotic panels available if any members are interested.

Today's meeting was the final member sign-up & pay day for the workshop by Lucille Amos. Available spaces will now be open to non-members.

Membership: There are 17 members and 3 guests in attendance.

Treasurer: Chris Carlin reported a beginning balance, deposits, checks, and a final balance.

NEW BUSINESS:

Pam Haskins reported on the future move to the old R.B. Lumber Yard property on Salem Church Road. Architects were advised of our need for larger rooms.

The guild received an e-mail from Jean Quinn with her new address. Her mailing address is P. O. Box 273, Sherborn, MA 01770 and Chris Blankenship reported that she is organizing a Concealed Weapon class sometime in October for $45. No perfume or aftershave is a requirement. Contact Chris at Blankenship1697@ATT.net.

Dee Dalton, a NC quilt designer and co-partner in the mystery retreats in Banner Elk, presented our program.

Along with the wonderful trunk show, she emphasized the necessity of spray starching before use in order to control fabrics and also the importance of consistency in ¼ inch seams.

Respectfully submitted,

Paula

Leader Lines

Ladies let me commend you on your appreciation of our speaker Dee Dalton. I saw some real interest in her lecture. She is a real taskmaster but the end results are what always makes the difference in my book. I personally have evolved over the last 13 years of our retreat as she brings something new every year. Some years it is a technique others times it is a tool. But through it all if you are truly looking for those things she will bring you from the, I will just do it and it will pass to the time it takes to do something DO IT RIGHT, correct it right then and there. We all have gone through the process of making a mistake, laying the boo boo to the side and eventually just picking it back up and making it go in the quilt. It makes a difference.

We have come a long way with our plan for this year's leadership. I know last month there was so much going on we did not talk about next year and the leadership. I will not be there this coming meeting as it is our first fall retreat for this year. I am going to ask Linda to discuss this with you all at the meeting to start the conversation. We have a board meeting the end of Oct. and we will have to decide then what we will do. BE THERE!!!!

Linda is working on our speaker for Oct. and you all will be surprised.

For those of you who showed interest in doing the workshop and then have not signed up I can only tell you what a special time we will be having.

Vicki

Judy Niemeyer Workshop September 28, 2016

Lucille Amos's workshop will be held September 28 in the big room downstairs so each of the 20 students will have a separate table for cutting & sewing. The pattern/kit Indian Summer is available at Hancock of Paducah (sometimes on sale). Lucille has patterns only available for $40. Members should check on-line for any corrections to the pattern. Set up at 9:00 a.m. or earlier with the start at 9:30 a.m. promptly (unless Lucille changes the start time). A Subway lunch will be included so time is not lost going out to lunch. The cost to guild members will be $30 to be paid at time of sign-up in August and September meetings. Then, if there are open slots, they will be offered to non-members at $35.

Quilts on Wheels

This month we will be getting stuff out of cabinets and deciding how we will proceed with all the fabric and projects we are going to be working on. Come see what we will come up with.

DOES SOMEONE KNOW WHERE THE PRISON SUN BONNET SUE'S WERE PUT FROM OUR QUILT SHOW BOXES? I HAVE NO CLUE SO SOMEONE WHO KNOWS WILL HAVE TO COME OUT AND GET THEM BEFORE THE WORKSHOP SO THAT PEGGIE PAGOOTA CAN GET THEM AT THE OCT. MEETING. WE VOTED TO ALLOW THE MOORESVILLE GUILD TO BORROW FOR THEIR SHOW THE END OF OCTOBER.

Magnolia Stitchers

We always have a great time at our meetings – sometimes learning new things but always with lively conversation. We only do hand work at this group which includes hand appliqué, hand piecing, hand embroidery, hand quilting and English Paper Piecing. Bring a friend – all are welcome!!! Please let me know if you are bringing someone or are not able to attend the current month's meeting – it will be appreciated.
