Minutes for October 2, 2019 Meeting

Betty Fulford welcomed everyone to our first meeting in the beautifully renovated space at the Senior Services Center. Linda Gunter led the members in prayer.

We presented Susan Gauthier of the Lincoln County Coalition Against Child Abuse & Child Advocacy with 20 of our donation quilts. Susan said that these quilts are given to children when they need a medical evaluation and the kids find them very comforting. In her 10 years with Child Advocacy Susan has seen over 1,000 victims.

Rene Crowder presented a program and trunk show on Scrappy Quilts. Her examples were all beautiful. So, the scrappy quilts turn out looking great, she suggested picking a theme or color. For example, for a particular quilt you might stick to Civil War prints or 30's pastels or brights. It gives a coherence to the overall look of the quilt. Great program!

After a brief recess, our meeting started. Chris Carlin made a motion to accept last month's minutes. Seconded by Margaret Hamilton. All approved.

Treasurer: Chris gave the treasurer report.

Donation Quilt: Karen Keys reported $95 was turned in today. We will be selling tickets at the Library Gathering at the Citizens Center on October 8. We have about 200 tickets left.

Membership: There were 16 members and two visitors present today.

NEW BUSINESS

Betty, Linda & Paula met with Catherine regarding our space. Our very tall white cabinet did not survive the move and its contents will be moved into other cabinets. Betty purchased three new locks that look better than the chains previously used.

The Senior Center has a library so all our books can be placed on a shelf there for our use and the use of others. Linda Gunter made a motion to give our books to the library. Seconded by Linda Kiley. All approved.

We were informed that our regular Wednesday hours are no longer available. After a discussion of possibilities, a vote was held and most agreed that Tuesdays from 9:00 a.m. till 12:30 p.m. would work best. So, the 1st Tuesday of the month will be our regular meeting/speaker, the 2nd Tuesday will be Magnolia Stitchers, and QOW will be on the 3rd Tuesday of the month.

Our Board Meeting originally scheduled for October 30 (a Wednesday) will be changed. A brief Board Meeting will be held on the 3rd Tuesday, October 15th, before we start QOW.

The proposed slate of leaders and committee heads was presented and will be voted on at our November 5th meeting.
 Despite the changes which we had to make, we all agreed that “change is good” and this is a new wonderful space provided to us by the Senior Center.

Respectfully submitted.
 Paula Spann, Secretary
