Minutes for December 3, 2019 Meeting

The meeting was opened by Betty Fulford. Jean Miller led the members in a prayer. Brenda made a motion to accept last month's minutes as presented. Seconded by Peggie Pagoota. All approved.

Treasurer: Chris Carlin gve the treasurer report.

Membership: There were 14 members present. Membership forms are available for 2020 membership and will also be available in January.

Sunshine: Shari reported Vicki was recently in the hospital, but is now happy to be home.

Quilts onWheels: Shari said QOW will be collecting odd orphan blocks from members for use in donation quilts so please look around and see if you have any. She also has ideas on simple quilts decorated with "happy" appliques, i.e. fish and bubbles. Kits and fabrics will be available to take home and work on. QOW starts at 8 a.m., but coming later is certainly fine.

NEW BUSINESS:

The recent newspaper article in the Lincoln Times on Piecemakers was passed around. It was a great article on our donation work and includes several pictures.

There will be no Magnolia Stitchers or QOW in December.

The next Board Meeting will be on January 7th at 9:00 a.m. prior to our regular social and meeting. So, come earlier than usual and participate in the Board Meeting.

Jean Funderburk will present a program at the January 7th meeting on the dating of North Carolina quilts and fabrics.

Linda Gunter volunteered to be the Greeter and Refreshment person for January. Members will be asked to sign up for the rest of the year at the January meeting.

The Wedding Ring Quilt was raffled off and Claire Mcninch of Rock Hill, SC won the quilt. Shari left a message on her phone. Claire was on a cruise but called back as soon as the ship docked at a port. She is very excited to hear that she won the quilt and we will make arrangements to get the quilt to her when she returns home.

Respectfully submitted,
Paula Spann, Secretary

MAGNOLIA STITCHERS

Magnolia Stitchers is a hand working group of ladies. It is a small group but if you are into applique, and most other hand work you may enjoy leisurely socializing as you work. They meet the 2nd Wed. of the month at 10:00 am. If you are interested, let Sandy Bruce know. Her phone # is 704-658-8582.
